Mission Critical Partner

Generation Success has reached out to a number of entities to ensure our success and the success of our students. While we do not have firm contracts or MOUs signed, we have met with several organizations to get the ball rolling. Below are a list of partners we have identified as potential help for our future. Additionally, those partners that the board has spoken to and/or have added to a short list of names for our direct work and conversation are shown in emails below.

Potential Partners:

Delgado Community College

Youth Rebuilding New Orleans

Roberts Refridgeration and Heating

The CEOmind

Crescent City Schools

Restorative Justice Center of New Orleans

Hi Brandy,

Thank you for reaching out to us! You've come to the right place for your training and professional development needs.

Mission Critical Partner

We work with schools across the USA to provide innovated professional learning experiences for their faculty and staff covering topics from technology integration, Project Based Learning, and more.

Our fees vary depending on the time of year and length of training that is required. When were you planning to have your staff hired and ready to be trained?

Warm regards,

Mike Lynch, Ed.M.

Good evening Kate,

I apologize for the late response, but I wanted to thank you for making time for me yesterday. Our talk gave me a lot to think about, and I will ultimately take your strongly emphasized suggestion and be the school leader for years 1 and 2. In thinking about our application, and what we will need moving forward, I wanted to also express my joy in naming us a potential school for your students in high school. We gladly welcome your students. Lastly, I appreciate any introductions that you can make, and allow me to pick your brain through this process.

Let's change the world together!

Best,

Brandy
